Abramson 5.0 out of 5 stars Id have to give my old Conair a 5 star review but this one deserves at least 10 stars. It has more power but the all time best feature is the cord rewinds with just a push of a button so no twisty nasty cords to contend with. Ive had many hair dryers, most of them Conair, but this time they really got it right. Ease of use, power, and I love that rewind button. Poof and 4 feet of cord is neatly rewound inside the dryer. Fantastic buy especially for the cost. I love the hair dryer. <http://www.pphu-joanna.pl/fckpliki/91-honda-accord-manual-download.xml>

Everyone needs a backup hair dryer and this one is light. Easy to fit in small places and works just as good as one I paid a hamsome amount for. I looked around before I ordered this one and they were more than I wanted to pay. This was a deal for me. I am blown away! I normally use the hair dryer only after shower for only about 1 minute. It overheats extremely fast and turns off. When it turns off you have to unplug it and wait for it to cool down before you can use it again. I like the retractable cord and the folding aspect because I have a very small space to store it in, and it fits perfectly with the cord retracted and the dryer itself folded. It doesnt have a lot of blowing power, but since my hair is so short it works fine for me. The cool button is worthless. This is the hair dryer Im replacing. The green one was perfect when I had long hair and its cool button was NOT worthless, but since it broke I decided to look for a smaller, less powerful one since my hair is short now. But I would recommend that green one to anyone who is looking for a quality hair dryer no matter the length of your hair. This model works fine for short hair. Its perfectly adequate hair dryer if one is not looking for something professional to use for styling. Me, I just blow it long enough to get it mostly dry and then I walk out the door, so it works fine for me. Its more powerful than what I had, it folds, and the cord retracts. Easier to store. Im VERY happy! Please note that those features may make it seem like an ideal traveling dryer, but its fairly big and heavy, so I recommend buying something smaller for that purpose. For home use, though, this dryer is ideal! First off, after retracting the cord about 4 or 5 times, it gets tangled inside of the hair dryer so now the cord doesnt retract all the way. It leaves about 3 or 4 inches out, as it cannot retract anymore. <http://xn---0tbbbfo0f.xn--p1ai/userfiles/91-honda-accord-manual-pdf.xml>

Reading the instructions, it says that if the dryer does not turn on, unplug and press the reset button, then plug it back in. Sometimes it still never works. Had to buy a new dryer just in case sometimes this one never turns on. No idea why it is having that issue, but when you are in a rush in the morning it is a real pain trying to get it to turn on. Pretty much has a mind of its own. The power of the dryer is good though. Light weight, easy to use, retractable cord is a great feature. However around month four of use I started to encounter problems. Plug it in and test nothing, would not turn on. Try a couple more time and it worked. It stayed functional for a few more weeks before happening again. Now it takes about 1520 minutes to get it to work. Its design is very convenient, but its dwindling functionality after such a short period of time is a huge disappointment! Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Cord extends 5 ft., which is enough for me considering where my outlet is located, but length might be a factor for others. Cord retracts easily by pushing the button on the side and near the top of the dryer. What you see is what you get no extra attachments. This dryer is a reasonable weight and not as heavy as many others I have had over the years. Has dual voltage switch for worldwide use. The lint trap isnt removable, but will be easy to clean by wiping or using a vacuum. Overall, Im very pleased with this purchase for home use and I look forward to how compact, convenient and tidy it will be for travelling as well. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again I like that the dryer can fold in half to take up less space in the bathroom. Some reviews indicated that it was rather heavy for travel and it is a heavier weight which is fine for home use but may for some be too heavy for travel. I also like the retractable cord but if I have a complaint at all, it would be that the retractable mechanism does not always work well.

In all other aspects the Conair blow dryer works very well. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again This is lightweight, keeps things organized with the retractable cord and dries her hair in a snap. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again It dries my hair relatively quickly and I really like the cordkeeper and the fact that it is foldable, it makes my bathroom shelves much more organized. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Left about 1215 inch out. So I asked for a replacement. SUPER fast replacement thanks, BUT the exact same thing happened with the 2nd one. Again, after 10 days the cord just stopped retracting all the way and again it was the same last 1215 inches. Dries well, so if you dont care about the retraction this might work for you, but if you were buying it because it is retractable. dont. Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Stopped working suddenly yesterday, only after 3 months of use!!! Waste of money!!! Sorry, we failed to record your vote. Please try again Sorry, we failed to record your vote.
